Additional Information:
If the appointment concerns a minor child, not only the child but also a parent or legal representative must be present.

What should you bring?
- Your valid passport (or other travel document). This applies to every person who has an appointment.
- Your appointment email.
- Your (expired) residence document. Or the police report after reporting a loss or theft (if your residence document has been stolen or lost).
  This applies to every person who has an appointment.

Is someone coming to the appointment with you? This person must then bring a valid identification.

Costs
Have you received a letter stating that you still have to pay? Do this at the IND desk.
Please note: You can only pay by debit card.

At Arrival
Upon arrival at the building, you will find a waiting area with a ticket kiosk on the left side of the entrance. Please sign in at the kiosk and take a seat in the waiting area. If your number appears on the screen, walk to the meetingpoint (on the left before the elevator). An employee will pick you up and accompany you to your appointment.

The IND will contact you by telephone if additional information is required.

Sincerely,
Immigratie- en Naturalisatiedienst (IND)
